---	------------------------------------	--------------------------	---

What will you be learning about?

In this scheme of work, you will firstly look at Christian teachings such as the Trinity and the life of Jesus. You will then be able to look at how Christians are motivated to act because of these teachings. We will focus on the values and commitments that Martin Luther King and the Sothern Christian Leadership Council had.

Key Focus

You will reflect on how Gandhi inspired a nation and influenced Martin Luther King in his methods of protest and be able to draw on parallels between both men. Themes from the unit include an in-depth study of life in America for black people and their fight for the right to vote using their non-violent, peaceful methods of protest.

We will develop our learning by studying the following each week:

Lesson 1: The Trinity

-To describe the Holy Trinity and explain Christian beliefs about God.
