

GCSE Religious Studies

Exam Board: OCR

Topic 1: Beliefs & Teachings and Practices (Christianity)

Topic 2: Beliefs & Teachings and Practices (Islam)

Topic 3: Religion, philosophy and ethics in the modern world from a religious perspective.

During topic 3, students will also study the following four themes and assess how religion impacts on these four areas of life;

1. Relationships and families
2. The existence of God, gods and the ultimate reality
3. Religion, peace and conflict
4. Dialogue between religious and non-religious beliefs and attitudes

All Religious Studies exams assess using a range of 3, 6, 9 and 15 marks. A link to the past paper section of the OCR website is available on the reverse of this sheet.

GCSE Religious Studies

How best to support your child with their study or religious studies at Lode Heath School?

The links below will enable you to access various resources that will enable your child to make progress towards their target grade in their GCSE.

As well as this support, your child's teacher will provide revision opportunities via the online learning site 'SENECA'. In year 11, there will also be the opportunity to attend revision sessions that will ensure any gaps in your child's understanding are addressed.
